Southern Stamps

Fortunes Now Made

The recent sale in New York of the brought the subject of philately under Philatelic Society of Brooklyn. During stamped over the first figures. Brooklyn exhibition was more extensive. predecessors, over 10,000 persons attend-

The Brooklyn Institute's stamp collection bids fair soon to become the third in

In the case of current testies, but reprints Mr. Deats regards as his most precious if the originals are out of use. Great treasures, One is red on white, the other Britain is the only conspicuous govern-red on blue. The first is the only one of ment that has not yet contributed, per-its kind there is, so far as known; there-the famous Baltimore ten-ent stamp of tracery. It looks like a state scalthe Baltimore provisional stamp in value of Flemington, N. J., exhibited a collecat $13.00. For a single small collection first lection Mr. Deats guid Make a couple of an extent that the philatelist who expects to do anything noteworthy most Confederate stamps. His collection is world, although several European collectors crowd him closely for the first place.

Some foreign stamps are even mor early imper of such British possession Hawatian Islands ure practically unob-

So minute is the scrating of the stamp the philutelists as their fair prey. And the paper, and on opening it new try this is easily seen in view of the fact finish. There, both on the one pure, was may bring $500 or more. As a rule, how- on the other column a fairly good ploture ever, the stamp-men are sharp enough to saying that, as an aposite of temperance, take care of themselves. As illustrating I recommended Screen's Gold Cure. the detective work incident to phiately, Alexander Stevens, Vice-President of the during filteen years before he finally

The Confederals government made the following story on her father Posted States now makes them in sheets mest denomination being 2 cents. provisional stamps of the postmosters. but the exigencies of the mail service made their use necessary. The postmasters usually stamped envelopes by hand, than 5 cents. If the exact postage were 5 cents, it cost the sender a dime. Letters forwarded from one address to another had to be restamped at extra cost. Thus some letters cost 20 cents in postage be-fore they reached their destination, owing

Mr. Deats divides Confederate stamps tion is somewhat arbitrary, but that no stamp falls to come under one or another of these heads. In the first class are the stamps issued by postmasters on their own responsibility before the sovernment own responsibility before the government first senate. A good many Republicans over the state may be for semendly else over the state ov mparatively primitive lithography that time. The second subdivision is the most interesting, the composition of son of the specimens being very crude, those now owned by Mr. Deats showing fou different spacings, as many different fonts of type, and numerous irregular impressions in the border caused by misstamp collection and the large placed fragments of brasa rules. One at Sums paid for some of the specimens have least shows had proofreading, McConnell -the name of the postmaster-appear-The Brooklyn Institute of ling with three successive e's. The hand Arts and Sciences is the only educational stamps were made with wooden or metal body in the world that recognizes philate- dies, subber stamps not yet having come ly (the study, collection and the preserva- into use. A few of these stamps show tion of stamps) as a science. Its rection that the postmaster changed his mind the general conduct of life. It is safe to or philately was organized September 16. about their value, or decided to have a say that they will never have any such their value, or decided to have a say that they will never have any such their value, or decided to have a say that they will never have any such their value, or decided to have a say that they will never have any such that the postmaster changed his mind the general conduct of life. It is safe to or life years he has restded for the say that they will never have any such that the postmaster changed his mind the general conduct of life. It is safe to or life years he has restded for the say that they will never have any such that they properly at Brant-bargain sale, as second denominations are the latter part of March of the next year division is so extensive that Mr. Degre is progress will have leaders, indeed, but the section held its first exhibition of inclined to treat it as a class by itself. postage and revenue stamps. This was although technically it belongs to the first not the first display of this kind in the class. Regarding it as the second class, country, but the third, the others having the third consists of the adhesive stampe taken place at the Eden Musee, in Nem Issued by the Confederate government York City, in 1988, and at the Chicago and broadly known as "Confederate claimed, World's Fair in 1830, respectively. But the gramps." The unstamped envelopes used by the Confederate Postoffice Departclaborate and successful than either of its ment, corresponding to the penalty envel-Thus encouraged the section will nowadays, constitute the fourth class. It have another and greater exhibition in is noteworthy that the Postoffice Depart-March of this year, and annually herement was the only department of the inherited debts, succeeded first in paying of this association are best explained in hunter extends from one end of India to "My reflections were interrupted by a 15 rival ibls off man. Even Loreson of the association are best explained in hunter extends from one end of India to "My reflections were interrupted by a 15 rival ibls off man. Even Loreson of the association are best explained in hunter extends from one end of India to "My reflections were interrupted by a 15 rival ibls off man. Even Loreson of the association are best explained in hunter extends from one end of India to "My reflections were interrupted by a 15 rival ibls off man. Even Loreson of the smoking room light footfall it was for all the world to contain man. have to use stamps.

The Deats collection includes an envel-Importance in existence. The most value ope showing four Confederate provisional able at present is the private collection stamps, the only four together in exist-of M. Pallippe Ferrari of Paris, worth once. Four other envelopes collomize the much more than a million dollars, and the history of the rebellion. The date of the second is that of the British Museum, first and that of the last are less than a by the help of which with his wife and which owes its place largely to the ac-consistion of the splendid collection of the bears a provisional stamp showing the late T. K. Tapling, M. P. M. Ferrari sm-Southern flag: the second, under date of Universe through some of the finest Englate T. K. Tapling, M. P. M. Ferrari emSouthern flag: the second, under date of drives, through some of the finest Engplays two agents, whose sale business is June of the same year, the postmater's lish scenery, with passing gilmess of the tithe of what he owned and of what his mate and their two cubs. The father to search for stamps. One he pays 10.800 hand stamp; the next, date of August.

Cathodrals could earn, amounted to some £2.000 sprawled at ull length on the ground. One attends exclusively to adhesive the Confederate government's stamp, his colleague to stamped envelopes and cards.

the postmaster's engraved stamp, with undoubtedly had a great influence upon the child's future as a lover of both the of the annual produce to the fund. The cubs frisked about like glant knitens, only a few nature and art.

the postmaster's engraved stamp, with undoubtedly had a great influence upon the child's future as a lover of both the of the annual produce to the fund. The cubs frisked about like glant knitens, only a few nature and art. months later, the government's stamp. For the rest his mother, who was a in the period of little more than a year alone. The collection contains a Macon lindy of somewhat severe character, kept since the Philatelic section was founded stamp hearing no mark except its denomi- the hoy-he was an only son-in complete the Brooklyn Institute has received sets nation, the usual one of 2 cents. The isolation from children of his own age of stamps from about fifty governments, collector paid $50 for it. He knows it is and with none of the toys or amusements of stamps from about fifty governments.
This prompt and generous response is a Macon stamp, because there is no other attributed to the bigh reputation which in existence, exactly like it, except for the Bible and respect for superiors prids of freedom. The mother especially the institute enjoys abroad. Among the statement of the additional data of time and place, of the purest English masters, and he yere enforced upon all.

The only Beaumont stamp known to ex- unconvelously implied from these studies. "Life is unnecessarily long," says Emer-United States, Austria, Hungary, Rusist he hought for $1,000. He has a pair of that love for someone simplicity which son, who himself lived to be a wreck of eye in vivid waves, like the brass on that sia, unmania, Egypt, British India, New Spariannings with quaint records. A Fleafterward distinguished his literary style, his former mental self. Ruskin's life Zealand, Queensland, Naw South Wales mington bookseller, a neighbor of his was In 1832 his parents took him on a four saily emphasizes this saying. The last her. The depths thus opened threw me saily emphasizes this saying. The last him on a four superfluous years are a blank in literation. South African Republic, Stam, Hong Arkansas during the war was one of a he continued the observation of architecture, made all the blanker by an occasional or some minutes. Kong the Bahamas and St. Lucia. The party that emptured and rifled a Confederate of ional wrathful letter to the papers like "Within a few days I had organized a tocture begun among the cathedrals of a voice crying in the wilderness that all is hunt. I insisted that the tigress be left within a few papers like at mailing. Few persons saved stamps pines, and Guam. The French Minister two Sparianburgs impressed him as Fired with the ambition to become an of tune and harsh. Human life assumed of the rest of the family. We found them Marine and Colonies sent the issues forty colonies. All of the British colonies are also represented, the five Australian and the present and J. D. Harding. In 1838 he was many many form the difficulty, in the depths of the fine being the forty colonies. All of the British colonies are also represented the five Australian and the present and J. D. Harding. In 1838 he was many many form Copies Fulding vision. He lived in an atmosphere of fear the jungle. The tigress, when I caught the jungle in the jung of forry colonies. All of the British col- the other to his vister. Afterward Mr. oniss are also represented, thefive Aus- Deats bought one for $5, and the present trailian sets being particularly fine. These catalogue price of its companion is $100.

A couple of New Orleans 5-cent stamps

haps because there is no British precedent foce it would bring at least 150; but it is haps because there is no Birtiso preceded for all would bring at least acc, but it for such a contribution. But the English not for sule. "Beyond price" is its stamps will probably 2s forthcoming, owner's own phrase about it. There is a through the influence of the Duke of single duplicate of the red on blue. More York, whose good offices the Institute has greate and heautiful than either of these on the subject of Salsette and Elephanta. riage as its issue, ran through all his hit. A wide red stream ran down her gether. The animal almost held me. In is a Livingstone, Ala., stamp, a biue | In 1810 he graduated. The highest price ever pair for a single shield on a white ground, with cupids in United States stamp was $4,400. This was the corners, deterwoven with delicate 1845, showing the autograph of Postcost $736. Two very searce stamps in the proved that the post and the painter had master Buchanan of that city. Next to collection are the 6-cent and the 10-rent merged into the inspired critic of litera-Confederate greens, as they are called, the 20-cent St. Louis stamp of the same | Then there are some interesting Baton

this country at various times, but is your stamps on these letters, and the supply is San Francisco has an incomparable col- Ruskin's side. lection of the very rare Hawailans.

"Talk about the hardships of a polititisers got me up against one good and been striving to please everybody and adfore the Section on Philately, H. E. Dents | vertise myself a little. My wife has tried a aid me, and one of her ads fed to my unifoling-because she did not consult me ustomed to taking a little drop of whisyears ago. Philately has evolved to such key. My wife is opposed to this and tells everybody I am strictly temperate. His speech at this point was broken off o let a comprehensive wink and broad oblong package was left at my office. oponed it and found a queen bords w pretty fair. There was a little note t used, asking for a testimonial so I

When I arrived home my wife said: John, a bottle came for you this mornage and as it wanted a restimental I sent behold, it proved to be a bottle of gold nothing, with a face value of only 5 cents, recommended Old Perato Whiskey, and

> NOT A GOOD ANATOMIST The daughter of a Mississippian who has adopted Memphis as her home, tells stamps in shorts of forty of a prevailing "Papa was relating to this family and some of his friends one day the expericure he had gone through in having a of 400, and sells them jos to the sheet, the tooth pulled. He said the dentist pulled so hard that he pulled him clear out of The Confederacy of the recognition the his chair, I was only a fittle girl at the bulf-musingly:

retghty bad." you could have seen the two roots of that Men wondered at and applicated his young neinter named John Millairs. He is backbone, you would know how it him magnificent claws upon which he must described as at that time the handsomest

El Dorado Republican: Senator Lucien structure of receipt.

Baker will be re-elected to the United the way to be below to Ruskin's Romances The Woman He Married, the Women He Did Not.

With the death of John Ruskin, the last of the great authoritive voices of almost dictators in art, in morals and schools, none to whom commensurate power will the prophets has gone, probably forever, the benefit of workingmen. The intellectual republic has been prowas born on February 8, 1819, in a smoky suburb of the London which he detested. His futuer, John James Ruskin, was a large fortune for himself.

In those charming fragments of auto Ruskin has told us how, when he came to be four or five years old, the father prove criticism, "An Introduction to the home. Poetry of Architecture."

Meanwhile he was contributing poems More much coveted Newdigate prize by a poem romance, with the contemplation of mar- did not lose a minute, a second. She was class brought $1.00. Many rare American class brought $1.00. Many rare American Stands of Britishing are worth from $2.00. In this class are the Brattlebare Vt., Millibrary Mass. and New Haven, Cont., post-bury Mass. and p That was a period of intellectual unrest allief with the family of M. B. Lamar, one president of the results of the result beir champion and defender and finally

The second volume was published in 1845, days.

three volumes, 1851-1851.

Next to the "Modern Painters" the was the girl be should marry.

Painters" and his "Stones of Venice." time, but I mustered up courage to say, same vigot and musters of the recourses, which tack place in test "Well, maps, that must have here of the English incoming as he had shown saided in much unhappiness to her. She inchip bad." Well, I guess it did, he replied. If meccaniti in comparing his antagonists.

He was laughed at when he cought to gress of the work led to his occasional from the debasement of the skilled laborer, the corruption of the artist, and the apotheosis of trade. These jeremiads were most forcefully uttered in the pages of his "Fors Clavigera; or, Letters to the Wockingmen and Laborers of Great Brit-

His fame as an art critic nevertheles. led to the offer of many positions as a collegiate lecturer. He was appointed the Victorian era has passed away into Rede lecturer at Cambridge in 1867, and silence. With Carlyle and Newman he was Slade professor of the art at Oxford formed a great trinity that made the from 1870 to 1879 and again from 1882 to profoundest impression on thoughtful iss, resigning office finally because of the farly make between London and Calcutta, incredential of the last generation and were introduction of vivisection into the Oxford. It is a rare treat to be a listener when race is more and more. The armies of mainly built on the proceeds of his books. The splendid legacy be had received from his father he generously divided among needy kinsmen or dissipated in instituobsidence will be yielded. The age of tions for the instruction of the public and the deep in laziness as contagious in lis-

In 1871 he endowed a school of drawing the Taylorean Museum at Oxford, and in August of the same year founded the Guild of St. George, of which he remain-ed master until his death. The centre of the Guild is now at Sheffield, wheer it wine merchant, who, starting life on no has its museum, he yet holds land at capital and a considerable amount of Barmouth and other places. The objects for the years 1872-76. In brief, they were to establish by mutual effort a piece biography which he called "Practerita." English ground that should be "peaceful, Rushin has told us how, when he came beautiful and fruitful." No machinery should be tolerated where the hand of > property belongs. The subscriptions to rent I haited, the fund, in addition to his own gift of "Not many land they cultivated. The methods of the cubs collided with her in their sport cultivation are controlled by the overseer she desit one or the other a playful blow of the whole estate. Tenants might build that would have wrecked a bungalow. their own houses, according to their own shrank into the follage and contemplated the incomparable splender of ancient art. lost. The sweet bells were jangled, out to me. My companions were to take care triculated at Christ Church, Oxford. Next took on violent forms. To the last, how-year he published in the Architectural ever, he was tended by his cousin, Mrs. My eye had the straightest of lines from Magazine his first significant piece of Arthur Severns, who had charge of his the gun barrel to her head. For one sec-

It is an accepted fact that John Ruskin simultaneously. of rare promise and good performance to suffered from some congenital physical masters stamps, and the Confederate provisionals, effauncent. Uniontown and Madson. Any well-authenticated Confederate stamp of which no dualizate is known to exist is worth $500. Those who and New York has a magnificent collect. Rhown to exist is worth time. Those who have access to correspondence dates between 1811 and 1870, Those who have access to correspondence dates between 1811 and 1870, Inclusive, have good tween 1811 and 1870, Inclusive, have good the first of the firs Ruskin's side.

The family found it hard to accustom

In his recent blography of his father, many first a broken heart. He sought relief in head before her enward rush. She lifted in me as a cat might a mouse. Up the tormore opinion that Ruskin assisted for the conduct of the little girl."

"The astonishing part of it." said the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the "promised fand" he had before her enward rush. She lifted in the promised fand rush. She lifted in the promised fand rush. She lifted in the promised f ommon opinion that Ruskin assisted in with horror upon a contemplated unfon face downward, to the ground. Planting founding the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood. with a French woman and a Catholic, one paw upon my prostrate form she as Manurius. Nova Scotia, New Bruns - cal life," said a recent sceker for po-wick, Newfoundland, and Canada. The litical honors, "your newspaper adver-earlier stamps of British Guiana and the tisers not me to accept the formal sense this is true. The day as an absence of its object. In 1828 she went object was to break my spine. The claws tisers got me up against one good and independent movement of Milais. Hunt with her staters to a school near Chelmson of this raging tigress dug into the exhand. How was it? Well, this is the first and the Rossettis. None of them knew ford, in England. In that August he posed fiesh. Another past from the posed fiesh and I have been in the field and I have the time. Millais had never saw her again. She had lost some of her was failed in the blood that flowed from the past field and I have the posed field and I have the past field and even read his book. Nevertheless, it was first girlish nesttiness, but that made no her jaws. I lay helpless as a babe. Surkin who had erestained into shape difference. And when the Domecqs came "I feigned death. The effort was easy the scattered elements of protest against to the Ruskin bones, at Herne Hill, to in my abject heightesners, and it saved the extant which dwelt is all thoughtful spend the Christmas helidays, he was as minds. It was he wise and anticipated deeply in love as ever. Still she laughed "My men had not been inactive. One forced their acceptance upon the recal- gagement to a French nobleman. Baron The great beaut forgot me for an instant The remaining four volumes of "Modern outlined "Farewell." A fortnight later he persition gave me a moment's strength.

Painters" were written makely in de- was taken acriously lit. In May he was I picked up my gun and loaded it. One velopment and further analysis of the pronounced consumptive, and had to give of my men scattered the weapon. I heard up the first, principles which had been adopted by the Pre-Barbacilier, and which urg is a return to the freed himself from the spell, returned less less is me. Rephacilies and which used a return to the freed himself from the spell, returned over using and to all her mades and phases to Oxford, took a pass degree, and filly "What a release from my arong the nature and to all her mades and phases to Oxford, took a pass degree, and filly "What a release from my arong the nature of death held eath is taken to that arong the natural to that arong the natural to that arong the natural to the natural to that arong the natural to that arong the natural to the

"Notes on the Construction of Sheepfolds," an every on the church of England, INL, and "The Stones of Venice."

Reversable of Mr. George Gray, of
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony before that fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony to the construction days of agony to the fourney ended.
Then the doctor said I must loss an arm,
the days of agony to the construction days of agony to the construction of the construction days of agony to the construction of the construction of

"States of Venice" is Ruskin's greatest. He shock his head. He told the lady and thost significant achievement. But that he had decided never to marry, that come of his publicat work is embedded in fact was his only mistress. But the the short book form under the titles of "Sesame easily be shaker off. As his acquaintance That ended my tiger bunts," concluded and Lilles," 1765; "The Ethics of Loust." With Miss Chalmers elsewed he imagined in her all the attributes of the Mess "The Outen of the Air," 1865, and women. In brief, he fell in lowe and

These bunklets are a return to the same formally proposed for her hand. He made no secret of his infirmity. But be made and sealthy. He had at his command a marked change had his command a market element of come in the character and aim of the tanguage. He was of a chivalrons and creater portion of his writings. He declared his belief that his forte was him, but she demurred to the mairh, really not description, him political score. According to Mr. W. G. Collingwood. Acting on this boiled he threw Ruskin's hiographer, it was the lady's himself into an attack on the orthodox parents she forced the match upon her connens of political economy with the According to the same nutherny, the bookbone, you would know how it burn stream-usly insisted. But there was much man in England. His talents were such "I suppose he meant inchone, but the large teachings which the areas quality colonized to win a woman, in hear the correction, and I don't know to hear the correction, and I don't know to hear the correction, and I don't know to hear the English people as to their locality to his house to paint a portrait of this day where the roots of that tooth to this day where the roots of that touth military weakness. Ruskin strove to show the one that touth military weakness. Ruskin strove to show the thrown Into constant companionship. them concerning the conditions of their thrown into constant companionable, morely in labor, trade, art, and the whole Mrs. Ruskin gave the artist many sixtings. Mr. Ruskin's interest in the proFor Tiger-Bait Awful Experience of an English Hunter.

Officers of the British army in India coumb to few things, but among them is the faccination of a tiger story. A tiger story is their unfailing resource on the long ocean voyage they must regulsome grissled vetran during the enforced lesure of this homeward journey. smoking room audience spellbound with tain of adventure.

Such a treat was mine not so very lying ago, sags a write in the New York Her-"Þ£n We had had a day of monotony aboard. The great steamer squatten on offects as that of the ocean's waves. She suffered herself to be pushed along by the Major Nevil was the centre, in the smok- my peril. But as the hours were on I progeny. Even Brigham Young-with his

The fame of Major Nevil as a tiger instantly.

"We were encamped six days' journey from Calcutta," the Major was saying. The forests were as thick and simbborn as the hair on a boys head. For hours I could command a post shales and a pair, man could do the necessary work. had struggled through the high grass and by the help of which with his wife and. The guild was organized with about over the monarrous roots of trees. At twenty companions, to whom the entire one of the turns in the dry bed of a torond she and I exchanged a look that made me cold. I fired and she leaped

A long burn through her fur was the rare promise and good performance to defect which made marriage in the true only effect of my builet. A hanging "Friendship Offering." In 1805 he won the sense impossible. Nevertheless a vain of branch had deflected it. I fired again. I youth and his maturity, and resulted in breast. Her roars seemed to exhaust the His first important work, the first voi- three episodes of so painful a sort us to supply of air about us and make it hard are ume of "Modern Painters by a Graduate shudow his career at three important to breathe. She rushed and disappeared in the jungle. We dared not for The first of these love stories began low through the high grass, but one of They were coming nearer. I heard my stretched on the ground." " 'Allve or dead?"

"I ran ahead. There lay the tigress, a motionless mass of loud color. As I not understand the admiration of her say and awkward swalin. He had had little to reload my gin. She gasped right in not turn and kill me with a strake experience of society, he had no drawing my face. In desperation I rammed the paw. But the animal lost blood fi the theories of the Pre-Raphaelites. And at him. Her school days over, she re-it was be who now constituted himself turned to France. In September, 1839, he heard of her en- The others welled and danced about us.

the third and fourth in 1856, the last in Some five years later, when the first contriving a stretcher from the bought volume of "Modern Painters" and already and currying me fifty miles. The flow of his clover exquest. Many other works appeared in the for-terval. Chief among them were "The evening at a dance in London a young Seven Lamps of Architecture," 188; girl of remarkable beauty. "Notes on the Construction of Sheep- She was Miss Euphenila Chaimers, the to the wounds. There followed two more the Major. "I had had anough, even though my experience was loss terrible than that of Sir Arthur, here." We all cooked at Sir Arthur Hewitt. 1 many times, but had never before seen him. A talk thin, solderly figure, with a tare durkened by close applicat the range, he loomed the giant of the

"Sir Arthur," said the Major, "was once a pince of live balt in a tiger trap," Arthur's story had to be fold.

"It happened in Birmunia," he began try was revered at that time by the creset native chief we ever had to contend similar in the world. She was appointed much prime for which you will be that position in the Bussian four by rights to root world. Then from camp, we lighted firm and by down lifted podily from the ground. I had been the walls of his library with the words, septy: "One hundred deliars fore Gung. The moment he new me he see distant prospects and ranging pen. The nuttur would not love leaved hideway's.

covered a tiger trap shead. I did not mmediately comprehend the purpose of my captors. But my uncertainty did not "The tiger trap was constructed of hammo. One section of it was cut off from way. Finally they came to a halt. The bandage was removed from my eyes.

Growing accustomed to the light, I dis-the rest by a network of bumboo rods. This formed the receptacle for the balt. The balt was myself. They stripped meme with thongs. Then they made off. that a tiger might appear at any moment. However, there was some hope, although Snake river, near the place where that the hope was slender. A little native girl noticed an absorbed group, of which hurry off and apprise Captain D'Ovicy of the next world the minks because of bli have understood like that of a timid child. When the sound first reached my ears no suspicion of tigers entered my head. Suddenly a gurgrous shoulder flashed its stripes through the bamboo. One of the largest tigers I seen-and I had seen manyconfronted me. The animal must have weighed 500 pounds. From my observation at the time the creature's length was nine feet. It was a well-fed tiger, broad all over her limbs. As we gazed late each other's faces I was overcome with men of physical perfection.

"It flashed across my mind that this might not be a man eating liger. In that assume before they can stiain the highvent, it would shiff about the trap and est glory in the world to come. To one do me no harm. One gigantic naw was who is industrious in obedience command is to come the power of The door lifted and fell. The tiger was log a world of his awn and becoming god caught. Only a bamboo paling seperated The bulky mass advanced toward me. Then the animal stood perfectly motion. the end.

where the insects left their stings. Those raw spots glowed like so many tiny coats. stared straight into the figer's face, not ! first movement should come from the It did. With a roar, the tiger deshed her whole weight against the communion with God, and whose voice hambon rods. The great claws were thrust through and barely reached me.

The this of the great claws were religion or husiness. The tips of them scratched three long streaks in my side. A red tongue was "The peril gave me inconcelvable I tried to burst my bonds. But I suddenly recollected that bursting my bonds would do me little good. I was in a trap, like my enemy. I grasped the outer bars of the cage. I drew myself toanother moment my portles of the trap to breathe. She rushed ahead and disap-peared in the jungle. We dared not fol-A confused sound of voices fearthed me. merged into the inspired critic of litera-ture and art.

shortly after his return with his parents my men climbed a tree.

shortly after his return with his parents my men climbed a tree.

ture and art.

"I see her, master, he cried. "She is My voice refused to issue from my throat. But I knew in that instant that the little girl had given the alarm. I am glad to was soon marked for a leader. recall that my first impulse was one of gratitude to her.

AN EXCUSE THAT PAILED. Charles Miller, a Standard Cit magnate. When he had established his wives and whose home is in Franklin, Fa., has a children in such comfort as was possible whom hard busines sense and wordly sution are highly developed. One day

"My boy, it's time for you to go to bed! I want you to get up bright and early omerrow morning and go to church with of the narrow, mountain guarded valleys hurch temorrow," replied Master Miller.

"Last Sunday the preacher said he was going to preach about the davil." "I know he will say lots of hard things about the devil-awful hard things about PERSONAL PROPERTY.

But the boy went to church in spite of

HIS CHINESE NAME.

General Pitzhugh Les received much There he found formes sufficient to raise attention during his recent what to the his family, and his followers grew to be nto a great bug of festoring flesh. But I manipulature of the telephone were not

"What came is that?" saked one oper-

"Lee-Fitzbugh Lee," was the response. "Fireburgh Lose"

"Thank you. Plague take these China-PERSONALE Sir John Hickinson-Poynder, who is go- entering into the border of calculat maning to South Africa to fight the Bosts, buy glage." Some of his sens have their pinan income of $20,000 g year.

Norfolk, has borne his title for forcy shown.

years, imper than any other dake outthe cutton transfer and the cutton which read, "What is lower transferd a militaget the cutton which read, "What is lower side the royal family.

the Cast Alexander III. An English correspondent states that much Answer." He decides than a a sleep. Some hours later I felt myself. President Kruper has a spotte hunging on later his fortune was made and wrote in

"Give me liberty or give me death," Since her everight has so much failed not think or giving new outs much "The next morning they brought me be- pendent on her conduct life, as she can file

Mormon Family Ricks Who Was Greater in a

Way Than Brigham Young.

extends the name of Ricks is known From the blenk plains of Alberta, Coneds, where the followers of Brightm Young are bull-fling themselves a new kingdom, to the tropical wilds of Cathus of my clothing, thrust me in and bound line, Mexico, where they have long enjoyed imperial blessings, members of "I did not feel very uneasy at first, family are farmers, merchants cut la For two hours I worked for freedom, but ranchers, missionaries, high churchmenin the end I was forced to simil the hope-lessness of the task. Indeets affighted on my skin and hit the flesh raw. The sun the cradle to men of simost three score, heat down on my head and into my eyes, and they are all descendants of a grigne in I grew faint. Suddenly it occurred to me conducts a ranch in the valley of the stream forms the boundary line between

He is the Mormon of Marmons-one (m whent there is to be glery and henor in grew despondent. Would the little girl nineteen wives and fifty-six children and scores of grandchildren-will not be able to rival this off man, Even Lorenza one end of the world to another, must bow to him. Even George Q. who has established a family village on the outskirts of Salt Lake City, must acknowledge his supremary. He is the passessor of perhaps the largest family in the country

It is an enviable thing in Mormondom to have so many children. Mormons believe the first recorded command of in the shoulder. The muscles stood out Got-Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth"-is the fermidation of all gospel, the keystone in the great plan a peculiar feeling of respect for this spect. for the universe. Millions of spirits are waiting in another world they believe, for "tabernacies of flish." which they must command is to come the power of foundover it-just as, in their belief, Adam founded this world and will be its god in

So this aged man, who is fiving on his "My whole body had turned cold, except vanch, still surrounded with his twelve wives and many of his children and grand-hildren, is regarded with veneration by the Marmon colony which has aring to wink an eyelid. I felt that the spread throughout the southeastern part of Mahn. He is a high priest in the church, one who is supposed to be in

Members of his family, who have remained near him are scattered over a stretched greedily through the bars stretch of country fouriers miles long by There was no doubt now. This was a two much broad, and in the centre is the fown of Ricksville, over which the father rules like a patriarch of old. He visits each of his times, and is always welcomed by his children. Once a year a reunion of all who can reach the place is held.

Ricks is still a giant in form and strength. Whence he came or who were his parents he will not tell. All that is known is that he heard of the teachings of the Mormons in a foreign land long Louis in 1842. He was an earnest convert. and when he joined the followers of Junech Smith, near Independence, Mo., he Joseph Smith who tried to prevent the people out of the state. He was a mem body of city militis with which Joseph Smith defied the whole state of illinois.

in it by taking seven more women fate

When he had established his wives and the eye of a roler amiring to create an empty, had seen the great possibilities to the north of Iftah and Idahy, and had of his church. Just us he called men as missionaries to carry abroad the gospet of his faith, as he colled men to be gloneven by salking this virgin country.

With two or three some of emigrant families who had rome from Europe by had become reasoned und star them out to found new colonies. The church guarotherwise they had to hew their own for-

Ricks headed one of these parties, which in 1965 took possession of the Shake rive valley. He took up ranches for himself and all his whyse, and identicated his talerate the practice of polygamy, and even tellered in polygonic as part of their religion. After the Morney shurth had deciared is intention of atandoning plural murriage, however, the law was repealed, that their people hold a balanch of power

Some of Blicks' children have shown apprinted of the raich of their father by Sie Redvers Buffer deriver Mit Christian of children, and some of his elementers ness from the Richard de Divers, the bave married high obstromes. first Earl of Devon after the Norman lives be share with editor source. All of conquest.

THE STORY OF A SONG March Hims' We have let them to

The publishers replied that they are her Queen Victoria has become quite de Joven; but they would be willing to sim-leared hideway's.

""At last," said Se, "here is one of those Coincel Baden-Powell earned from the fine this with and and political many in special many.

Coincel Baden-Powell earned from the fine that this with and of six months that without the minimum and of six months that without the minimum and of six months that without the minimum and of six months that without the second of six months that will be second or six months that will be second or six months the second of six months that will be second or six months that we see that the second of six months that we see that the second of six months that we see that the second of six months that we see that the second of six months that we see that the second of six months that we see that the second of six months the second of six months that the second of six months the second of six months that the second of six months the second of six months that the second of six months that the second of six months the second of six and would retuce us to slavers! perst," meaning "he that crops about at phone and it came is remark for writing in the property of the control of the contro